Camp Rules & Policies

1. Camp is fun. All behaviors should reflect polite, respectful and courteous young people.
2. Stay healthy. If a camper is ill, he/she should remain home until they feel good enough to join the activities. (see Illness/ wellness contract for Brighton's attendance requirements)
3. Camp is PEANUT FREE. Serious even fatal ramifications can occur if peanut or peanut exposed products are brought to school.
4. Camp is active- dress well. Wear good shoes, a jacket and the right clothes.
5. Camp is prepared- read the calendar. We have a great calendar with dates and times. Please use this resource to coordinate the events and times your child will participate in.
IMPORTANT: Field trip arrival times are imperative. If campers are late on the day of the field trip, parents will have to provide their own transportation to and from the activity.
6. Camp is inclusive. Two snacks, lunch, all activities are included in the tuition. Field trip costs are added to the single day tuition for a child who only attends on a trip day.
7. Camp is safe: Campers may not check themselves in or out. Only authorized individuals with a valid identification, 18 years and older may pick up a child from Brighton Schools.
8. Camp is appropriate: All actions, materials, media, games and toys that are brought to Brighton must be safe, appropriate and legal. Our goal is to provide a secure and safe environment for all people.

Campers are expected to follow the camp rules. If a child exhibits unacceptable behavior, redirection will be used. If the behavior continues, a break from all other campers will occur. Continued misbehavior will result in termination from the program. If a child misses a field trip, activity or is asked to leave camp for the day due to poor behavior choices, it is the parent's responsibility to pick up the child. There will be no alternative care for children who are asked not to participate in that day's activities. Additionally, there will be no refund of tuition if this should occur.

By signing this contract my camper and I acknowledge and agree to the above policies and rules for attending Brighton Schools Holiday Camps.
